Tickety Boo! is UDC's great ticket redemption crane. The cranes use a special claw which is perfect for grabbing bundles of tickets.

Customers keep playing until they win. Ideal for those who need a few more tickets for that special prize they've set their heart on.

Originally designed to be located near to your prize centre, they're perfectly suitable for anywhere in your FEC.

Fill up the cranes with bundles of tickets of various sizes using the colour coded stickers to indicate how many are in a bundle.

Multi-coin mechanisms fitted as standard by UDC, also swipe card compatible.

Available in standard and 'X-Treme' sizes. The X-Treme can accommodate larger bundles of tickets and holds thousands of bundles. Suitable for 30p, 50p or even £1 win every time.
